

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

VOLUME XXXVIII.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1894.

NUMBER 243

PLAN MADE CLEAR BY MR. SPRINGER

CURRENCY BILL EXPLAINED BY THE ILLINOIS MAN.

The Changes Which the Carlisle Bill Proposes Fully Elucidated—Officials Think the Income Tax Suit Will Not Stand—Yield of Gold Last Year Very Large

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Representative Springer gave to an Associated Press reporter the following summary, intended as a popular explanation of the currency bill, as modified by the late Carlisle amendments:

"In the first place," said Mr. Springer, "the Carlisle bill proposes a radical change in the manner of securing the banknote circulation. The rapid payment of the public debt, the limited number of bonds now outstanding, and the further fact that many of them are held in trust capacities in this country and as permanent investments by persons residing abroad, have rendered the kind of security now required impracticable. The Carlisle bill proposes for the security of the circulating notes of the national banks; instead of United States bonds, a guaranty fund consisting of legal tender notes or currency certificates to the amount of 30 per cent of the circulation applied for; also a safety fund to be raised by a tax of one half of 1 per cent per annum upon the circulating notes until it reaches 5 per cent of the whole circulation, and, as a further security, a first lien upon all the assets of the bank, and upon the amount which may be realized by the double liability feature of the national banking law.

"The guaranty fund of 30 per cent, the assets of the bank and the personal liability of the stockholders can only go to the payment of the circulating notes of the bank which issues them, but the 5 per cent guaranty fund raised by a tax upon all the circulation of the country is a common fund, out of which the notes of any failed bank may be paid, if the guaranty fund, the assets and personal liabilities of the stockholders are not sufficient. Thus, on a circulation of $200,000,000 the present national bank circulation, the safety fund would amount to $10,000, and this whole fund could be drawn upon to pay the notes of any bank that failed. This security is considered ample by the safest financiers and bankers of the country.

WILLIAM M. SPRINGER.

"The currency bill as amended does not compel national banks to enter the new system. They may continue under the old law, but it is thought that banking officials will soon see the advantage of the new plan and adopt it."

DEMURRER IN MOORE'S SUIT.

Officials Believe the Income Tax Injunction Will Not Stand.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Assistant Attorney-General Whitney has filed in the District Supreme court a demurrer to the complaint of John G. Moore against Commissioner Miller of the internal revenue bureau in which he asks for an injunction restraining the latter from collecting the income tax authorized by the new tariff. The demurrer is brief and general in its terms, setting forth the complainant has not made such a case as entitles him in a court of equity to the relief sought. At the request of Mr. Whitney the case is set for hearing Jan. 8. The case is attracting little attention among government officials, most of whom express the opinion the complainant has absolutely no case. A somewhat similar attempt was made by the state of Mississippi in 1867 to enjoin President Johnson from executing the reconstruction acts; but the Supreme court held a court could not interfere in this way to prevent the execution of acts claimed to be unconstitutional.

HUGE YIELD OF GOLD.

Output of 1894 Will Surpass All Previous Records.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The world's gold product for the present calendar year will surpass that of any other year in the history of the world. The production of last year exceeded that of all previous years and was reported by the mint bureau at $155,522,000. The production for 1894 seems likely to be not less than $175,000,000, or a gain of nearly $20,000,000 over the figures of 1893. The principal gains have been in the United States, the Witwatersrand region of South Africa, Australia and Russia. It was evident last summer that mining activity in Colorado and other western states would carry the product of this country for the year from $45,955,000 to $42,000,000. It now looks as though the total would reach $45,000,000.

American Forestry Association.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The thirteenth annual session of the American Forestry Association began here yesterday at the department of agriculture. There was only a small attendance at the opening session. The most important advance made for the preservation of forests during the year was in the passing of the McRae forestry bill which has passed the house, and it was decided to make strenuous efforts to secure favorable action in the senate. The association is in a good financial position.

Reports Regarding Indian Schools.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The annual reports of the superintendents of Indian schools indicate a growing interest taken in education by the Indians and testify to the good work accomplished by these institutions. It is claimed the Indians are advancing in a manner that indicates many of the tribes will soon be beyond the need of government assistance.

Will Retaliate Against Spain.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—It is given out that the President and Secretary Gresham are in earnest about retaliation against Spain's attitude on the tariff question. The point is insisted on that the reciprocity arrangements were not in any sense treaties, and hence that they were subject to modification or repeal by act of congress.

FAILURES ARE FEWER THIS WEEK.

So Says Dun's Report For the Seven Days Past.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

"Commercial failures in 1894 already reported number 14,294, against 15,242 last year, with liabilities of $163,233,404, against $346,779,889 last year. Next week the final report for 1894 will probably include about 400 more failures, with liabilities of about $40,000,000. From these accounts banks, bankers, financial and transporting companies are excluded. Manufacturing failures already number 2,756, against 3,422 last year, but liabilities are only $64,491,207, against $176,982,091 last year. The trading failures already number 11,314, against 11,512 last year, but liabilities are only $87,599,057, against $130,062,333 last year. The statement by sections shows a decrease of about two thirds in defaulted liabilities in the middle and central northern states, one half in the west and southwest and a third in other sections.

"Holiday trade has met expectations. The volume of business represented by clearing house exchanges is 7.7 per cent larger than last year, but 21.8 per cent less than the year before, and the daily average for December has been 7.1 per cent more than last year, but 25.2 less than the year before.

"Wheat has declined one half a cent, though western receipts have been only 1,712,093 bushels, against 3,109,893 bushels for the same week last year, but since Aug. 1 receipts have been a little larger than last year and the visible supply is the largest known. Exports in December from both coasts have been a little larger than last year, but for the crop year about 20,000,000 bushels smaller. The western estimate, usually regarded with most confidence, is that the crop will reach 515,000,000 bushels, which will leave for export, with stocks brought over more than 200,000,000, of which only 75,000,000 bushels have gone abroad. Corn has declined three quarters of a cent with good receipts. The price of cotton has not changed, but the fact that receipts from plantations have been greater than in 1891, while stocks in sight here and abroad are larger than at the same date that year, is an obstacle to any rise.

"The market for iron and steel is waiting, but the reduction in wages at the Edgar Thomson works, averaging 15 per cent, plainly indicates the same difficulty which is seen in other quarters that the demand in consumption does not answer to increase in production of pig iron. It gives some encouragement that the Bethlehem works have secured a contract to make armor plate for Russia, but the order for cast pipe for Japan is still in doubt. Shipments of boats and ships from Boston have been 449,471 tons in the last two months, against 584,239 in 1892, higher than the largest year, but the difference about prices still checks operations.

"Failures for the week have been 330 in the United States against 511 last year, and 41 in Canada against 41 last year."

Florida Oranges Nipped by Frost.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 29.—Florida is experiencing the coldest weather it has seen since 1886, when the mercury registered 16 degrees. The thermometer seems likely to show that to-night. This will prove disastrous to the orange groves.

Will Not Have an Inquiry.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 29.—It now seems definitely settled that the United States minister, Alexander Terrell, does not intend to send anybody to make an independent inquiry into the stories told of Turkish atrocities in Armenia.

Find Another Big Shortage.

ROME, N. Y., Dec. 29.—The examination of the affairs of the Central National bank has developed an additional shortage of $57,000. Officers of the bank will soon be placed under arrest.

IN A BURNING HALL TWO SCORE DIED

A FEARFUL HOLOCAUST IN AN OREGON TOWN.

Nearly the Whole Population of Silver Lake Were at a Christmas Festival When the Building Caught Fire—Forty One Were Killed and Fifteen Hurt.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Dec. 29.—News has reached here that at Silver Lake, Lake county, Ore., Christmas eve, while a large party was attending a Christmas tree, a lamp exploded and setting fire to the building, forty-one persons were burned to death and fifteen injured.

A large crowd had assembled in Christman Bros.' hall to attend a Christmas tree festival. While the festivities were at their height some one climbed on a bench, from which point he expected to get a better view of what was going on. In doing so his head struck a lamp hanging from the ceiling, overturning it. The oil immediately caught fire and everything in the room being dry and of an inflammable nature the room was soon a mass of flames. Some one shouted: "Shut the door and keep quiet; it can be put out."

By this time the confusion was so great that people began scrambling in a wild endeavor to reach the door. Women and children were trampled under foot, and as there was only one exit to the hall and the fire was between the majority of the crowd and the door many rushed headlong into the flames.

Silver Lake is a small village in Lake county, Oregon, of about 100 inhabitants and it is 150 miles from the nearest telegraph office.

After the Indiana Speakership.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 29.—While the Indiana legislature will not convene before Jan. 8, one week from New Year's day, the republicans with their majorities in both branches are all ready for legislation. Justus C. Adams, an ex-member from this city, has the strongest support for speakership of the house. Nothing seems able to defeat him save a combination of the outlying districts, which does not now appear likely. One of the most important measures to be taken up early in the session will be the new apportionment. The new congressional districts are not yet outlined, but there will undoubtedly be many changes.

State Teachers Elect Officers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 29.—The following officers were elected by the State Teachers' association yesterday: President, William Jenkins, Dixon; vice-presidents, F. M. Tracy, Kankakee; C. J. Kinney, Rockford; T. W. McFall, Quincy; secretary, J. M. Bowly, Metropolis; railroad secretary, Homer Bevans, Englewood; treasurer, C. O. Scudder, South Evanston; member of executive committee, J. V. Greenman, Aurora.

Record Breaking Weather in Texas.

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 29.—The weather last night and this morning are record breaking. At sunset yesterday the thermometer stood at 42 degrees, at midnight it was down to 15 degrees, and at daylight this morning it was 5 degrees above zero. The farmers in every direction are killing their hogs, and glad indeed the cold wave has at last given them a fine opportunity to save their meat.

School Legislation Is Discussed.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Dec. 29.—Yesterday closed the state teachers' meeting. One of the principal events was the discussion of school legislation by members of the legislature. Senator Harsh of Creston mildly rebuked those teachers who insisted on many laws, a few every year. He believed schools did not need so much legislation.

Prices of Coal Not Raised.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Anthracite sales agents of the eastern and western territories have decided to limit their production in January to 45 per cent of their capacity, which is equal to a production of 2,300,000 tons. No change was made in prices.

Talmage Is to Preach Regularly.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—After Jan. 6 Rev. Dr. T. De Witt Talmage is going to preach regularly in this city. He is making arrangements to deliver his first sermon in the Academy of Music the above date. He will also lecture a little.

Farmer Kills His Wife and Himself.

MILLINGTON, Mich., Dec. 29.—Tiring of constant wrangling with his wife Matthew Palmer, a farmer living a few miles from here, in a fit of insane fury cut his wife's throat and then his own. Both will die.

Breckinridge's Small Audience.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 29.—Congressman Breckinridge of Kentucky had but thirty-six men in the opera house last night to hear him lecture on "Eras of American Development and Their Great Men."

Lord Churchill Is Restless.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Lord Randolph Churchill passed a restless night. His condition this morning does not show any material change from that at the same time yesterday.

DR. PITKIN FREED OF ONE OFFENSE

THE CHARGE OF ABDUCTION AGAINST HIM DISMISSED.

District Attorney Frawley Told the Jury that the Court Had No Jurisdiction in the Famous Hypnotism Case at Eau Claire—May Be Tried For Assault.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Dec. 29.—The ease of the state against Dr. Pickin for abduction of Mabel Briggs and Alma Leonard was dismissed in the municipal court yesterday. The district at

MORE ABOUT ARMENIAN BUTCHERY. Students Drowned with Heavy Stones Tied About Their Necks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The most interesting immigrant at Ellis Island last night was Diogenes Menippe, a young Armenian who escaped from the fury of the Turks just in time to save his life and was about to be sent home as an undesirable immigrant, when his case was reviewed by the immigration officials and he was discharged.

Menippe is only 18 years old. He was a student at the American college at Marsovan, Armenia, and after seeing twenty of his school companions murdered and two of the college professors imprisoned and sentenced to death he determined to escape if possible. Menippe is a bright youth and speaks the English language fairly well. This stood him in good stead when he reached Constantinople, for he succeeded in inducing the authorities to believe him to be a foreigner. The young man's parents are in the employ of the American Bible society at Marsovan and, being under the protection of the American flag, had never been molested. They furnished him with enough money to come here, but he had only $5 when he landed and thus came under the prohibited class of immigrants.

His flight from Marsovan, he said, was attended with great difficulty and danger. The whole town was patrolled by Turkish soldiers and whenever they had nothing else to do they sent a delegation to the college to examine a student. This examination consisted merely in taking him from under the protection of the college, tying a stone around his neck and throwing him into the river. Twenty of the students, he said, had been murdered in that way in two years. Two of the professors had been arrested and taken to prison where, after a mock trial, they were sentenced to death.

Previous to the passing of this sentence Dr. Herrick, an English professor at the college, appealed direct to his country for interference in behalf of the two men, which was promptly given. Their release was demanded by England and speedily granted by the Turkish government.

The Turkish soldiers would visit the college, armed with an order for examination, which the college authorities were obliged to honor. The return of the students thus taken from the institution was always promised but the promise was never kept. Two of the college buildings were burned by the soldiers.

CHINA WANTS PEACE.

Her Commissioners Are on the Way to Tokio.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 29.—Peace Commissioner Chang Yin Huan has left Tien Tsin for Chefoo, and is expected here on Jan. 6, when he will join Peace Commissioner Shao Yao Tien and go to Tokio. Chang Yin Huan is president of the board of the revenue, a member of the Tsung Li Yamen, and was Chinese minister to Washington a few years ago. Shao Yao Tien is acting governor of the Chinese province of Huan. He was formerly governor of Formosa, and while occupying that post he offered a reward of about $10,000 for the destruction of a big Japanese warship and for the destruction or capture of a small warship of Japan he offered about $6,000. But not content with this, he offered a further schedule of rewards to be paid to the Chinese who took Japanese soldiers or sailors dead or alive. For the head of a Japanese officer 200 taels were offered, and for the head of a Japanese private 100 taels were the reward. On this ground, it has been asserted the Japanese government would refuse to receive Shao Yao Tien as a peace commissioner.

Desperadoes Burn a Court House.

PERRY, Ok., Dec. 29.—The court house at Stillwater was burned last night with all the county records. It is believed the old Dalton gang burned the house to save Arkansas Tom, a member of the gang who is under indictment in Payne county. The loss is $20,000, with no insurance.

City Takes Possession of a Bank.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Dec. 29.—At 2 o'clock yesterday morning a deputy sheriff took possession of the Bank of South Superior in behalf of a receiver acting for the city of Superior. The city has funds on deposit in the bank and it is feared the institution is insolvent.

Killed by a Boiler Explosion.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Dec. 29.—A saw mill boiler exploded at Bonair, Barren county, killing five men and badly scalding several more. The names of the four dead are Bird, Fann, Derring and Stark. The mill was the property of Hard Derring and was almost totally destroyed.

Harass the British.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—A dispatch to the Times from Calcutta, dated yesterday, says that the Wazirs continue to harass the British expeditionary corps, firing into the camp at night and pouring a hot fire upon the British force from the bushes when the column is on the march.

Canada Strictly in Line.

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 29.—Alderman Stewart was arrested last evening charged with having offered to secure for one of the competing electric light companies the civic lighting contract for $13,000, which sum was used in buying up the Aldermen. Other arrests are expected to follow.

German Miners Want Eight Hours.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—A dispatch from Berlin says the miners' congress at Essen has adopted resolutions in favor of an eight-hour day, uniform laws and labor regulations in all German districts, and the appointment of independent inspectors.

BLOCKS IN ASHES AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

SERVICES PLANNED
IN CITY CHURCHES

MUSIC AT THE CONGREGATIONAL MORNING AND EVENING.

As the Evangelistic Meetings interfered with the Christmas Program the Exercises Tomorrow Will Be of the Yuletide Order—Topics Selected By Various Janesville Pastors.

On account of the evangelistic services that were held through last Sunday, the services of tomorrow at the Congregational church will be of the Christmas order. The regular choir will be assisted both morning and evening by Edward Holmes, violinist and F. E. Lewis with the violincello. The musical numbers in the morning will be as follows:

Andante—Sonata Pathétique.....Beethoven

Violin and Organ.

There Were Shepherds.....Dudley Buck

Choir.

See Now the Altar Garlanded with Flowers.....J. Faure

Choir.

The Manger of Bethlehem.....C. A. Havens

Edward Holmes, Violin; Choir.

Hallelujah Chorus.....Handel

Organ.

In the evening, under the auspices of the Men's Sunday Evening club, the following musical numbers will be given:

Largo.....Handel

Edward Holmes, Violin; Mrs. F. F.

Lewis, Organ.

It Came Upon the Midnight Clear.....Harry Rose Shelley

Ho! Night.....Adolph Adams

Mr. Holmes, Violin; F. F. Lewis,

Cello; Choir.

Orchestra.

Calm on the Listening Ear of Night.....C. A. Havens

D. D. Bennett, with Violin Obligate.

Bethlehem.....C. Whittemore Coombs

Choir.

Hallelujah Chorus.....Handel

Organist.

CHRIST CHURCH—Sunday after Christmas. Celebration of the Holy Communion 8:00 a. m. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Morning service and sermon 10:30 a. m. Sermon topic: "The Wonderful Life." Young Men's Bible lecture 4:30 p. m. Subject, "The Martyrdom of St. James and Deliverance of St. Peter." Evening service and sermon 7:00 p. m. Sermon topic "A Living Truth." Tuesday, the "Feast of the Circumcision" morning prayer and Holy Communion 9:00 a. m. Friday evening service and address 7:15 p. m. The Christmas music will be repeated Sunday morning.

COURT STREET M. E. CHURCH—Rev. S. Halsey, D. D. pastor. Services at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject "Three Looks." Evening subject "What Wives Think Husbands Should Be." Watch night services will be held on Monday evening beginning at 8 and continuing until 12. Preaching at 9 a. m. by Rev. F. A. Pease. Love Feast at 10 p. m. led by Rev. A. Porter.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Christ mas services will be held both morning and evening, with special music appropriate to the day. Morning topic: "The Incarnation." Evening service under the auspices Men's Sunday Evening club. All are cordially invited. Young Peoples Endeavor meeting at 6.

BAPTIST CHURCH—Preaching by the pastor morning and evening. Evening subject, "Four Important Questions Answered." Sunday school at 12. Endeavor societies at 4 and 6 p. m. The ordinance of baptism will be administered in the evening.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH—Dec. 30, 1894, class meeting 9:35 a. m. and 12 m. Sunday school at noon, Junior League at 3 p. m., Epworth League at 6 p. m. Subjects of sermons, morning, "Balancing the Account for 1894." Evening, "The Weaver's Shuttle."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. Sermon by the pastor. Subject—"What of the Year Coming; A Personal Question." Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject, "I Float on the River of Time."

TRINITY CHURCH—Sunday after Christmas. Holy communion 7:30 a. m. Matins and sermon 10:30 a. m. Sunday school and young men's bible class 12 m. Evensong and sermon 7:00 p. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE—Services are held at Room 4, Bennett block, No. 17 West Milwaukee street, on Sunday at 10:30 a. m., and on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

NO MORE MEN ARE TO BE LAID OFF
The St. Paul Railway Company Will Retain Its Present Force.

General Manager A. J. Earling of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway says the company are not contemplating any changes or further reductions at the present time. This statement will set at rest the rumors which have been flying about for several weeks to the effect that a big decrease of the force at the shops and a reduction of working hours were to be made shortly.

ENGINEER STEARNS ACCEPTS
Position Offered Him by the C. & N. W. Suited Him and He Took It.

The resignation of Master Mechanic William Smith of the Chicago & Northwestern railway makes room for the promotion of three well-known employees of the Wisconsin division of that road, one of whom is a resident of Janesville, Charles T. Stearns. First on the list is Robert Quar, foreman of the shops at Kaukauna, who is promoted to master mechanic, with his headquarters at Chicago. Alex. McLean, foreman of the shops in Fond du Lac and Oshkosh, goes to Kaukauna, and Engineer Charles T. Stearns is promoted to foreman of the shops at Fond du Lac and Oshkosh. The promotion of Engineer Stearns is one that will please that gentleman's many friends in Janesville, as well as his associates on the road, and while Janesville people regret to part with him as a resident, all will wish him continued success and advancement in his new field.

THE WOODMEN ELECT OFFICERS.
A Public Installation Will Be Held On Tuesday, January 8.

Florence Camp No. 36, Modern Woodmen of America, will hold an open meeting in Liberty hall, Tuesday evening, January 8, at which officers for the ensuing year will be installed. The ceremony is very interesting and instructive, and those who are fortunate enough to attend will be well repaid. At a special meeting held last evening the following officers were elected:

V. C.—William Marsden.
W. A.—O. S. Morse.
E. B.—C. H. Keuck.
Clerk—F. W. Parker.
Escort—Thomas Cherry.
Watchman—John Masterson.
Sentinel—G. Barriage.
Physicians—E. E. Loomis and J. F. Pember.
Manager for three years—W. H. Ashcraft, Jr.

A Calendar Worth Having.

Almost everyone has use for a calendar, and by the same token they ought to have one that is of some use. A calendar that you have to study to "set" has but little use for existence.

The one that we like best of all is that published by N. W. Ayer & Son, the Newspaper Advertising agents of Philadelphia.

The handsome copy of 1895 carries on its seal their famous motto, "Keep Evolvingly At It Brings Success," which will alone each day be worth to all who use it far more than the price of the calendar. The size is generous, and the work a beautiful specimen of the printer's art. Each day, as is becoming to such an important slice of time, is printed large enough to be read across the room. Then too, the matter on the flaps deals with a subject in which there is a growing general interest.

That the demand for this calendar increases each year, we can easily understand, for we do not believe that anyone who has spent one year in company with it, will be willing to spend another without it.

The price is 25 cents, delivered everywhere post paid, and in perfect condition.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK.

Texas, Mexico and California, the Wabash Railroad.

In connection with the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway, Texas & Pacific Railway, International & Great Northern Railroad and Southern Pacific Railway, known as the Only True Southern Route, has placed in service a Through First-Class Sleeping Car, leaving Chicago daily at 10:15 a. m. via St. Louis to Little Rock, El Melvern, (Hot Springs), Austin, San Antonio, Laredo (where a direct connection is made with through sleeping cars for the City of Mexico), El Paso, Los Angeles and San Francisco. This is the only line from Chicago which can offer this excellent service.

Call or write to any ticket agent of the Wabash or connecting lines for printed matter, showing time, route, rates, description of cars, etc., or C. S. Crane, G. P. & T. A., St. Louis, Mo., F. A. Palmer, Asst., G. P. A. 201 S. Clark Street, Chicago, Ill.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS.

A NEAT seamstress would like plain sewing to do by the day, wages moderate. Address S., Gazette.

JOHN BARLASS delivers an address before the Orphelin society in Milton college chapel this evening.

INFANTS' dengola turned, button, plain toe, heel, full turned shoe, 35 cents at Brown Bros & Lincoln's.

We have the best line of baby shoes in Janesville. See prices in small advertisement on 5th page. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We have made tea a study, and know it thoroughly. There is perhaps no one in the city as well versed on this article as we are. Have you noticed the prices we are making on it? Dunn Bros.

THE Slayton Jubilee singers draw packed houses in cities the size of Oicag & St. Louis with the admission 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00, but Janesville people can hear them next Tuesday night at the Congregational church for 25 cents.

A ONE week's sale is what it is, and as we are positively the only house in Janesville that has the Goodyear glove rubber, you had better take advantage of our offer for next week. See prices in large ad. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

WE have made tea a study, and know it thoroughly. There is perhaps no one in the city as well versed on this article as we are. Have you noticed the prices we are making on it? Dunn Bros.

THE Slayton Jubilee singers draw packed houses in cities the size of Oicag & St. Louis with the admission 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00, but Janesville people can hear them next Tuesday night at the Congregational church for 25 cents.

A ONE week's sale is what it is, and as we are positively the only house in Janesville that has the Goodyear glove rubber, you had better take advantage of our offer for next week. See prices in large ad. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

THE Y. M. C. A. of Janesville have favored the people in general by placing the price of admission to the concert given by the famous Slayton Jubilee singers at the Congregational church Tuesday evening Jan. 1, at twenty-five cents. They are the finest in America.

Trust Those Who Have Tried."

Catarrh caused hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also to a great extent lost hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Atty at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and have received great benefit. I believe it a safe and certain cure. Very pleasant to take.—Wm. Frasier, Rochester, N. Y.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

TARIFF TINKERING
HURTS TRADEEFFECTS OF THE WILSON BILL
BEGIN TO SHOW.

The Imports Are Now Three Times What They Were Under the McKinley Bill While the American Product Still Lies Idle In Bond.

Rock county tobacco growers can now begin to see and feel the effects of tariff legislation upon the tobacco industry. This legislation as it relates to tobacco directly concerns many Rock county people, and while the Wilson tariff has been in force but a brief time, growers have had ample experience to judge for themselves whether it has benefited them more than did the McKinley law which it superseded. The Wilson schedule greatly reduced the tariff rates on imported leaf, especially the grades used in the manufacture of cigars. The reduced rates in duties are having their logical effect. The imports of leaf suitable for cigar wrappers for Oct., 1894, were 844,864 lbs. or three times as much as in the like month of '93. Imports of fillers were also forty per cent larger. This makes the total wrapper imports for the ten months ending October 30, '94, 5,650,164 pounds against 3,095,669 pounds last year. The worst feature of the situation is in the increase in the quantity of leaf suitable for cigar wrappers remaining in bond, the amount on October 31, '94, having been 7,971,088 pounds, against 7,179,407 pounds September 30, 1894, and 5,926,801 pounds on October 31, 1893. It thus appears that only 153,183 pounds of wrapper leaf were withdrawn for consumption during the month of October, 1894.

Some Tobacco Notes.

S. B. Hedges has purchased 250 cases of '93 and sold 38 cases of '93; Soverhill & Porter, A. N. Jones, G. H. Rumrill and several others have been nibbling away in a mild manner, but business will doubtless remain quiet for a few weeks.

A crop of '94 is picked up now and then but in is generally when some one is pressed for money or is very anxious to sell and the prices are generally kept profoundly silent.

The holidays and a spell of zero weather has retarded stripping some what.

VERY little effort is being made anywhere towards adding to the holdings of the dealers.

As the old year goes out business seems to be dropping at all the market points.

An occasional transaction, however, is reported, though generally speaking the market is enjoying its usual holiday repose.

MORE of the '94 crop was removed from the fields during the damp weather early in the week so that stripping has become general.

THIEVES AT FULTON AGAIN.

Murwin Brothers' Store Is Again Looted Money In Mud Turtles.

FULTON, Dec. 29.—Murwin Brothers' store was entered again last Thursday night, much the same as before. Goods to a large amount were taken this time and many more were destroyed by bottles of ink being opened and turned upon books and writing paper. The last act has left a mark by which a clue has been obtained, and that the offending parties will be brought to justice soon is the wish of all law-abiding citizens.

Fulton has long been noted for many of its curious ways of money making, and several years ago commenced the shipping of mud turtles to Chicago. Harvey Pease shipped ton to that city last week. Saxy & Ceirriss shipped many last year and realized a good profit. Mrs. Keen is very poorly. News was received last week by Mrs. Phil Geary that her father had died at his home in Nebraska. He will be remembered by many in and around here as this was George Fazett's home for many years. All friends here will extend sympathy to Mrs. Geary and family. Mrs. G. S. Dodge has gone to Janesville for a week or more to visit at McLean's. Mrs. Pearl and children came to James and Alfred Cloughs to enjoy their Christmas dinner. Miss Mable Lee is home from her school in Janesville to spend the holidays. But few were out to the Christmas tree. The receipts were small but it was a success socially, the program being fine and well rendered by children. All who did go felt well paid.

Last Sunday while Mr. Boothroyd and family were away their house was entered by sneak thieves and everything turned upside down; trunks, bureaus, drawers and a thorough search made of the whole house. Some things are missing, but they got no money. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jessup, of Janesville, and Dr. and Mrs. Blanchard, of Black Earth, together with Mrs. Orphs and Grace Fessenden, helped to complete the family gathering at Ed. Jessup's Christmas day. Miss Edna Allen from Downer college; Charlie Raymond from Beloit; Harvey Raymond, Beloit; Miss Jennie Lintz and Walton Pyre, Madison; Miss Eva Pearson, Milton; Winfred Rowell, Beloit and Ben Waterman, Appleton college, made up our number of young folks who came home to spend the holidays. Fred Ten Eyck came home to enjoy his Christmas dinner.

MISS MABLE LEE is home from her school in Janesville to spend the holidays. But few were out to the Christmas tree. The receipts were small but it was a success socially, the program being fine and well rendered by children. All who did go felt well paid.

Last Sunday while Mr. Boothroyd and family were away their house was entered by sneak thieves and everything turned upside down; trunks, bureaus, drawers and a thorough search made of the whole house. Some things are missing, but they got no money. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jessup, of Janesville, and Dr. and Mrs. Blanchard, of Black Earth, together with Mrs. Orphs and Grace Fessenden, helped to complete the family gathering at Ed. Jessup's Christmas day. Miss Edna Allen from Downer college; Charlie Raymond from Beloit; Harvey Raymond, Beloit; Miss Jennie Lintz and Walton Pyre, Madison; Miss Eva Pearson, Milton; Winfred Rowell, Beloit and Ben Waterman, Appleton college, made up our number of young folks who came home to spend the holidays. Fred Ten Eyck came home to enjoy his Christmas dinner.

THE Slayton Jubilee singers draw packed houses in cities the size of Oicag & St. Louis with the admission 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00, but Janesville people can hear them next Tuesday night at the Congregational church for 25 cents.

A ONE week's sale is what it is, and as we are positively the only house in Janesville that has the Goodyear glove rubber, you had better take advantage of our offer for next week. See prices in large ad. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

WE have made tea a study, and know it thoroughly. There is perhaps no one in the city as well versed on this article as we are. Have you noticed the prices we are making on it? Dunn Bros.

THE Slayton Jubilee singers draw packed houses in cities the size of Oicag & St. Louis with the admission 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00, but Janesville people can hear them next Tuesday night at the Congregational church for 25 cents.

A ONE week's sale is what it is, and as we are positively the only house in Janesville that has the Goodyear glove rubber, you had better take advantage of our offer for next week. See prices in large ad. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

THE Y. M. C. A. of Janesville have favored the people in general by placing the price of admission to the concert given by the famous Slayton Jubilee singers at the Congregational church Tuesday evening Jan. 1, at twenty-five cents. They are the finest in America.

Trust Those Who Have Tried."

Catarrh caused hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also to a great extent lost hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Atty at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and have received great benefit. I believe it a safe and certain cure. Very pleasant to take.—Wm. Frasier, Rochester, N. Y.

A Decline In Groceries

We will move in about a week or 10 days to the large store room on the corner North Main and North First streets. We want to open up with a new stock and for 10 days will sacrifice everything we have on hand. 10 day

Closing out Sale of Groceries

Canned Corn	5c
Best Raisins, per pound	5c
Cleaned Currents, per pound	5c
One Pound Cans Baking Powder,	4c
All Soap per bar	12c
Buckwheat flour per sack	4c

A. C. MUNGER,

In Our New Store on N. Main street in ten days.

An Obstacle.
"By the way," said the editor to the new man, "we don't credit statements to a well-known citizen on this paper. You must give his name."

"The trouble is," exclaimed the new man, "that he is so well known that the statements would be discredited if his name were given." —Indianapolis Journal.

A Considerate Young Wife.
She—I need a new dress.
He—But you should take the hard times into consideration.

She—I have taken them into consideration; that's why I haven't said anything as yet about the new hat that is to go with the new dress.—Texas Siftings.

A Clear Distinction.
Agent—There are a dozen fraudulent imitations on the market, but this is the original, genuine article.

Retailer—How can I tell it from the rest?

Agent—All the others have their labels marked: "Beware of imitations." —Puck.

More About the Dollar Mark.
Teacher—Tommy, did you find out anything about the origin of the dollar mark?

Tommy—I asked paw about it, and he said the straight lines stood for the pillars of society and the crooked one for the way they got their money.—Cincinnati Tribune.

The Fin de Siecle Girl.
He (looking at his watch)—Ten o'clock.

She (in surprise)—Ten? That's my bedtime. I'm sorry, but I'll have to leave you. Don't hurry if you don't wish. Only be careful to close the front door when you go out.—N. Y. Press.

The Retort Courteous.
Anson—It seems to me that your ears are getting bigger and bigger every day.

Brown—Let me tell you something. My ears and your brain would make a first-class donkey.—Alex E. Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Much Better.
Miss Reader—Isn't it lovely to be an author? It must be so nice to write something that is worth reading twice!

Mr. Rondo—H'm! It's a great deal more satisfactory to write something that is worth printing once.—Puck.

Then He Went.
Pauline—I dreamt last night that I was the most beautiful woman in the world.

McComber (a born idiot)—That's just the way, Miss Pauline; don't you know "dreams always go by contraries?"—Truth.

The Lady's Mistake.
The Maid—No, sir, my mistress is not at home.

The Caller (savagely)—Well, tell her not to sit before the front window with the curtains open, then.—Chicago Record.

SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that the warrant for the collection of the special assessment for paving West Milwaukee street between High and Academy streets and East Milwaukee street between Main and Division streets, in the city of Janesville, is now in my hands for collection, and that I will receive the same at the office of the city treasurer until January 10, 1895, after which I shall proceed to collect the same as the law directs.

JAS. A. FATHERS,
City Treasurer.
Dated December 18, 1894.

COMPLETE your sets of World's fair views. Memories of the great exposition are treasures to be guarded jealously, and in no way can they be recalled as vividly as by well-executed pictures. Call at the Gazette office for Shepp's series. A few complete sets may still be had.

THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA
by Columbus brought enlightenment to the world. New fields of enlightenment in this century are in the lines of science. The triumph of CONSERVATIVE SURGERY is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or BREACH is now readily cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses never cure but often induce inflammation, strangu-lation and death. TUMORS, OVARIAN, FIBROID (Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the perils of surgical operations.

PILE TUMORS, however large, FISTULA and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

STONE in the BLADDER, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting.

STRUCTURE of URINARY PASSAGE is also removed without pain. Send for pamphlet, references and particulars, send 10 cents (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 683 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Best Housekeepers Use
KINGSFORD'S
OSWEGO
"PURE" & "SILVER GLOSS"
STARCH

Best and Strongest for Laundry.
use Kingsford's Oswego Corn Starch, the most delicious preparation for Puddings, Custards, Blanc Mange, etc.

Ask your grocer and have no other.

The Tea Market Down.

We propose to show the citizens of Janesville what we can do for them in the way of selling groceries cheap for the next 60 days. The first item we will tackle is TEA as we are thorough on the tea question.

Uncolored Japan Tea, the reg. 40c grade 35c per pound
Three pounds for $1.

All 35 cent teas	25c
The best Grade of Japan tea dust, per pound	12 1-2c
A good Tea dust, one pound package	10c
The famous Monarch Tea, the only genuine in Janesville, per pound	40c

When You Want Groceries Cheap Come to Us.

DUNN BROS.

Telephone 179.

123 W. Milwaukee st

"You'll Never Miss the Water Until The Well Runs Dry."

You'll Never Miss Our Low Prices.

CASH OR CREDIT.

—Until we fail to give them.

"IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE."

Hundreds and hundreds took advantage of our special Christmas offering. We are just in a position to add to your blessedness. We give you credit and place within your means the opportunity of making your dollars do extra service. It will be a revelation to you. If you have never visited our popular store do so at once. December 31 will be your last chance to get one of those

Handsome Pictures

WITH

Every $10 Sale.

or more. NO MONKEY BUSINESS, EVERYTHING ON THE QU ARE. Get others prices then come to us. We never monkey.

FRANK D. KIMBALL,

—PRICES CUT AGAIN.—

THE JANESEVILLE GAZETTE

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER

Entered at the postoffice as JANESEVILLE, Wis., as second-class matter.

Terms of Subscription.

Daily edition one year.....$6.00

Parts of a year, per month.....50

Weekly edition, one year.....1.50

Special Advertising Notice.

We charge full rates for cards of thanks, obituary poems, financial statements of insurance companies, and all other classes of items not considered news.

We publish free, marriages, deaths and obituary notices, without poetry; also notices of church and society meetings.

We publish at half rates church and society rates of entertainment given for revenue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1176—Archbishop Thomas a Becket assassinated in the cathedral at Canterbury; born about 1117. Becket was the first Saxon archbishop of Canterbury after the Norman conquest. As chancellor of England, he won the good will of King Henry II by his services as a courier and a soldier in battle and through the king's influence was appointed archbishop. After that he antagonized the crown, finally appealing to the pope against the king. He excommunicated Henry's ministers and was permitted to return to England without a change of attitude toward the crown. Four barons, the servants of the king, were the agents of his death. The pope canonized him, and the Saxons venerated him as their martyred champion.

1302—Sir Archibald Alison, historian, born at Renley, Shropshire; died 1897.

1803—Andrew Johnson, seventeenth president, born in Raleigh; died 1875.

1893—Gladstone celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday.

GOOD ADVERTISING PAIS.

The statements of fifty business houses published in the Gazette were read with interest by thousands of people. The verdict was so nearly unanimous that the evidence of satisfactory trade conditions is conclusive. That these conditions prevail at the close of a year, marked by general depression is highly gratifying and stamps the Bower City as one of the best business centers in the state. There are several things that contribute to the general welfare. Among the most important is the surrounding country. Rock county has long been recognized as the banner county. The average wealth of the three thousand farmers is greater than any other county in the state. Intelligence and thrift are characteristic of the 45,000 inhabitants.

The railway service including more than thirty passenger trains daily, renders the city easy of access to the surrounding towns and villages, and as a result JANESEVILLE merchants extend their trade far beyond the limits of many other inland cities.

The Gazette has been criticised during the year for its active advertising campaign, and yet the results demonstrate very clearly that the influence of the paper has been felt for good. Many of the merchants who have used the columns of the paper freely, say candidly that most of the increase in business can be traced directly to the paper.

The merchants who have been more conservative, have enjoyed the indirect benefits for, it is reasonable to suppose that when a buyer from twenty or twenty five miles away is attracted to JANESEVILLE by some bargain that is advertised, he not only comes to market with money, but also improves the opportunity to stock up on various lines of goods, so that frequently half a dozen merchants make a new customer as the result of one man's advertising.

The Gazette is interested in the prosperity of every business man in the city. The paper firmly believes that the volume of business in every line can be greatly increased. The conditions were never more favorable, and if advantage is taken of the turn of the tide, the year 1895 may be made the most prosperous in the history of the city.

FOREIGN MARKETS CLOSED.

The workings of the nefarious Wilson bill are being felt, not only in a general reduction of wages, to meet foreign competition, but in retaliation by foreign countries, with whom the United States had established profitable trade relations, through the reciprocal features of the McKinley bill, as suggested by Mr. Blaine.

Germany has prohibited our beef, and Spain is ready to join in retaliation, to be closely followed by Austria and Hungary.

The great importing houses of the Atlantic cities threaten to appeal to congress unless speedy action is taken. They claim that our exports of flour to Cuba alone have fallen off 700,000 barrels this year, while the potato trade of the same market is completely demoralized. These facts all go to prove that the democratic party lacks the wisdom and ability to properly conduct the affairs of government, and justly deserves the rebuke administered in November.

"The robber tariff" has so long been the watchword of democracy that the party was unable to realize that the question had more than one side. The party lost sight completely of the very imperative fact that if we wanted the benefits of the markets of the world, that a disposition to conduct business on business principles was of vital importance.

Reciprocity is a term that they lacked the ability to comprehend, and so the balance of trade has steadily drifted away from us, and the nation has been driven to the extremity of borrowing with the pleasant prospect of being obliged to repeat every six months until the country is placed on a self-supporting basis.

The laboring people of the country alone have lost enough through idleness during the past eighteen months, to pay the expenses of the government for two years at least, while the loss to capital during the same period would pay the war debt and leave a handsome balance. Add to these losses the loss of foreign trade through retaliation, and the grand total, is all the argument necessary to wreck any political party, and should consign it to oblivion for time to come.

The fact that the sultan of Turkey refuses to permit the United States to participate in the investigation of the Armenian outrages recently committed, indicates that Turkey recognizes the dark blot that time will never efface from her history.

That a nation in touch with the civilization of the nineteenth century, should sink to the depths of barbarism that was characterized in the butchery of innocent and defenseless people is one of the mysteries that can not be solved.

The Christian world should rise en masse regardless of creed or religious belief and if necessary wipe from the face of the earth, the perpetrators of these outrages.

The Armenians in Turkey are a harmless and defenseless class of people, who worship the same God that all Christian nations worship. They have the misfortune to live in a heathen land, and because they will not bow down to idols and recognize Mohammed they are slaughtered by the thousand and threatened with annihilation.

This sort of intolerance in this day and age is a disgrace to civilization.

The Milwaukee Sentinel suggests that Lawyer Bashford in asking the state to pay him $27,500 for legal services rendered in prosecuting the treasury cases, attempted to secure money enough to cover defense in the roster case. This is undoubtedly true. Governor Peck took a different view of the case and allowed Mr. Bashford $17,500.

THEY STOOD AT CUPID'S SHRINE

Stevens—Riley.

Frank Stevens, formerly clerk at the Grand hotel, and Miss Annie Riley, who also formerly lived here were married at Sandoval, Ill., December 27, Rev. Father Myers officiating. Miss Nellie Riley of this city, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The bride is a well known young lady who has made hosts of friends in JANESEVILLE, she being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Riley. The groom was for some time head clerk at the Grand hotel and made many friends in JANESEVILLE who wish him well. In common with many others The Gazette extends congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside at Orchard City, Ill.

Pepper-Hastings.

Henry Pepper of Center and Miss Roselle Hastings of Plymouth were married at the home of James Hastings in the town of Plymouth on December 27. Rev. Milton Wells of Greene, Iowa, officiating. The presents were many and valuable. The happy couple are well and favorably known and are at home in the town of Center. Many friends will unite in wishing them joy without limit during a long span of life.

LOW RATES TO MADISON.

On account of the state's inaugural ceremonies to be held at Madison, V. I., the Northwestern line will sell excursion tickets at very low rates on January 5 to 7, good returning until and including January 8, 1895. For full information, apply to agents of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—The following table shows the range of quotations on the Chicago board of trade to-day:

ARTICLES	High.	Low.	CLOSING.
			Dec. 28.	Dec. 27.
Wheat—2
Dec.	$.53%	$.52%	$.53%	$.53%
May.	.57%	.57%	.57%	.57%
July.	.58%	.57%	.58%	.58%
Corn—2
Jan.	.45%	.45%	.45%	.45%
May.	.45%	.45%	.45%	.45%
July.	.45%	.47%	.48
Oats—2
Dec.	.29	.28%	.28%	.29
Jan.	.29%	.28%	.28%	.28%
May.	.31%	.31%	.31%	.31%
Pork—
Jan.	11.42%	11.15	11.42%	11.20
May.	11.35	11.57%	11.85	11.60
Lard—
Jan.	6.75	6.65	6.75	6.65
May.	7.10	6.90	7.00	6.90
S. Ribs—
Jan.	5.70	5.62%	5.70	5.65
May.	6.00	5.90	6.00	5.90

A POOR BABY

Some little trade quicker than any living creature. We have a speciality of Baby shoes of the right kind.

Infants' dingle, turn'd, button, plain toe, no heel, full trimmed, 2 5.....35c

Child's dingle turned, button, plain toe, full, wedge heel, 5-8.....50c

Child's dingle M. S. button Phila. pat. tip, wedge heel, 8-11.....$1.00

Misses' dingle M. S. button Phila. pat. tip, wedge heel, 11 1/2.....1.25

BROWN BROS. & CO., N.Y.

TRADE

MANUFACTURERS

AND

SELLERS

OF

INFANTS'

SHOES

AND

SOCKS

AND

SOFT

WEAR

FOR

THE

YOUNG

OF

THE

WORLD

AND

THE

UNIVERSITY

OF

THE

WORLD

DOE HAS NO SHOW TO SUCCEED SWAIM

HIS CLAIM IS NOT EVEN CONSIDERED THEY SAY.

Washington Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune Says That This Can Be Put Down For a Certainty—One Hundred Acting Advocates Apply For the Job.

A Washington dispatch says that it may be set down for a certainty that General Doe will not get the appointment of Judge Advocate General of the United States Army to succeed General Swaim. The Tribune prints the dispatch which says that an intimation has been received from the secretary of war that Doe's claims for preferment will not even be considered, inasmuch as a staff officer of the army is to be given a deserved promotion when Colonel Lieber goes up another peg. This will in all probability be settled as soon as congress meets, for there are no other names besides that of Colonel Lieber now before the president. To be sure, if the chief magistrate saw fit he could make an appointment from civil life to the judge advocacy with the rank of major, for by congressional enactment the pay department and judge advocate general's bureau have been left open for appointments of this character. But in all other branches of the service provision is made by law for promotions from the line and staff of the army. In addition to Captain Balance and Chief Clerk Morrison there are upwards of one hundred applications on file for this place, including the five acting judge advocates of military departments.

The eminent comedian, John Dillon who is billed to appear in "Our Next Congressman," on Thursday, January 3, is supported by an unusually strong company, among which are Arda Le Croix, Miss Ida May Blake, Joseph Fox, Z. T. Evans, Vernon Soners, Marion Singleton, Josephine Fox, David Waring, George Eggleston and others. The play is a great success and the characters are all finely drawn. A big house will doubtless turn out to see him.

A MISTAKE was made in announcing that ticket for the Juvenile charity party would be ten cents. Tickets are 25 cents, but if any one feels disposed to be very generous, ticket sellers will accept all that is given them above this amount; and remember it all goes for Oak Lawn hospital, which is greatly in need of funds.

JANESEVILLE people who came from Yorkshire, England, are preparing for a long life. A paper received from that town says that 101 people have lived to be over ninety years of age.

One man lived 153 years. One woman was 103 when she died and still another died at the age of 110.

THE Slayton Jubilee singers consist of a double quartette of the very best Jubilee singers of the colored race and it is astonishing how the Y. M. C. A. can afford to put the admission at twenty-five cents but they have and it is a privilege for everyone young and low.

Four of the longest pine timbers that ever came to Janesville arrived this morning. They were seventy-eight feet long and it took three flat cars to transport them. They were for use in the new high school building and were ordered through Fifield Brothers.

The men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, will be resumed with the usual enthusiasm and men of all nationalities are cordially invited. Subject, "What is Your Responsibility," leader, John Turbull.

PATROLMAN HOGAN insists that the plush cap worn by Chief Acheson is not the regulation uniform and insists that the only regulation is the uniform cane, which he and Patrolman Kruse invariably wear when on duty.

We will have plenty of cold weather yet and you will need a cap many a day to keep your ears warm. Monday and Tuesday we will sell any and every cap in our house at cost. See prices on the 8th page. Ziegler.

FRED P. YOUNG had both hands severely burned by an explosion in the stove at his home this morning. The burns are painful and will keep him from working for some days but are not dangerous.

The prices we have named on caps for Monday and Tuesday are less than any other clothing house in the city can buy them. Stock reducing sale before invoicing is the cause of the cut. Ziegler.

We make a specialty of repairing frozen water pipes, old gas fixtures, etc., at very moderate prices, and we guarantee all our work. Give us a call. Green & Allen Plumbers, on the bridge.

It is hoped that every parent will kindly patronize the charity party by purchasing one or more tickets. Let all the children go and have a grand, good time, and help a worthy cause.

No difference how small the job we appreciate your efforts to help us, and will do the best work at very reasonable prices. Green & Allen, the plumbers on the bridge.

NEVER in your lifetime have you been able to get a genuine $15 suit of nice tailor made clothes for $6 and after tonight we cannot give it to you. Frank Baack.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams will continue their dancing class for a half term. All those that wish to join should be present Monday evening, December 31.

THE junior meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the Congregations church chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. H. J. Cunningham is leader and the "boys quartette" will sing.

THOSE who attend the Hokey Pokey club dance next Friday night, can dance as long as they wish. Arrangements have been made with Smith's full orchestra to furnish music as long as there is anyone on the floor, and everybody gets a souvenir.

ANY fair minded druggist will tell you that Hudnut's perfumes are the best, equal to any imported perfume, that costs $1.50 an ounce. We are sole agents and charge only 50 cents an ounce. Prentice & Evenson.

The "masquerade" of the season will take place next Friday night, under the auspices of the Hokey Pokey club. Smith's full orchestra and a prize for everybody. Dance all night if you wish.

ANY piece of Japanese ware or other Christmas article you see in our window or front part of the store name it and make your price, and take it along. Prentice & Evenson.

WILLIAM MARSDEN of this city was elected delegate to the next meeting of the Head Camp of the Modern Woodmen, at the meeting at Madison yesterday.

MR. and Mrs. A. B. Voak, of Chicago, are in the city and will spend the winter with Mrs. Voak's mother, Mrs. S. F. Marquissee, 58 North street.

ENGINEER STEARNS went to Fond du Lac this noon to assume charge as foreman in the Northwestern shops in that city and Oshkosh.

MRS. N. FREDERICK is confined to her bed by nervous prostration that dates from the death of her mother, Mrs. Electa Gile.

THE Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in the rooms of the association promptly at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

HUDNUT's perfumes stand pre-eminent to any perfume in the market, and we will guarantee it. Prentice & Evenson.

ACCORDING to the Madison State Journal Miss Agnes Morrissey is entertaining Miss Nellie Gately of Janesville.

THE regular meeting of the Associated Charities will be held in their rooms Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THIRTY blue and black chinchilla overcoats will be sold at Ziegler's Monday and Tuesday for $5 each.

To get a $12.50 blue or black chinchilla overcoat, go to Ziegler's Monday or Tuesday with a $5 bill.

PILLSBURY flour has no rival. Try it and you will use no other. H. S. Johnson, 67 East Milwaukee street, sole agent.

THE funeral of Edward Funk will be held from the home at 2 o'clock and from St. Paul's church at 2:30.

This evening will see the last of our $6 suit sale; all $12 and $15 suits will go for $6. Frank Baack.

SMITH's entire orchestra will play for the Hokey Pokey's Friday night, and everybody will get a prize.

DR. CORTHELL, the noted eye specialist of Chicago, will be at the Park House all next week.

JOHN C. SPOONER passed through Janesville last night on his way from Chicago to Madison.

ALL kinds of caps for men and boys at cost, Monday and Tuesday. See 8th page. Ziegler.

It's the 7th page you want to read in this issue if you are looking for rubbers cheap.

USE Pillsbury best flour, sold only by H. S. Johnson, 67 East Milwaukee street.

ICE skating is now very good, except that there are many air hole death traps.

E. J. SMITH, manager of T. J. Ziegler's store came up from Chicago last night.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework at 205 South Franklin St.

THE Commercial Travelers association meet tonight to elect officers.

W. G. WHEELER came up from Chicago the limited last night.

THE Slayton Lyceum Jubilee Singers give a fine concert.

"BLACK PATTI" at the opera house this evening.

CARS at Ziegler's Monday and Tuesday at cost.

P. J. MOUAT is home from the east.

SKATING RINK TO OPEN MONDAY

Captain Griffiths will begin business with a band of music.

To Set Up Business in Chicago.

Irving is, perhaps, the youngest postage robber on record. He is a bright looking, nice appearing lad, who wears knickerbockers and the usual juvenile roundabout coat. When searched at the station several letters addressed to citizens of Fulton, a lot of postage stamps and other articles stolen from the post office were found in a small basket which the lad carried, and which also contained a lot of wearing apparel and the dozen dime novels. A 38-caliber revolver was also found in one of his pockets.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

No difference how small the job we appreciate your efforts to help us, and will do the best work at very reasonable prices. Green & Allen, the plumbers on the bridge.

It is hoped that every parent will kindly patronize the charity party by purchasing one or more tickets. Let all the children go and have a grand, good time, and help a worthy cause.

No difference how small the job we appreciate your efforts to help us, and will do the best work at very reasonable prices. Green & Allen, the plumbers on the bridge.

NEVER in your lifetime have you been able to get a genuine $15 suit of nice tailor made clothes for $6 and after tonight we cannot give it to you. Frank Baack.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams will continue their dancing class for a half term. All those that wish to join should be present Monday evening, December 31.

THE junior meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the Congregations

FULTON'S THIEF IS AN AMBITIOUS BOY

ERWIN MCLEAN ENVIED BILL DALTON'S REPUTATION.

He Started Out To Eclipse It By Robbing a Store and Is Now Locked Up—Stolen Goods Put on the Christmas Tree Casting Suspicion on Santa Claus.

A fifteen year old boy has been committing the crimes that have stirred Fulton up. Erwin McLean is his name and he has not yet achieved the dignity of "long pants." His last act was a peculiar form of lawlessness.

Just before Christmas, and for the second time in two weeks someone broke into Murwin Brothers' store. This fact alone, caused no great excitement, because the populace were getting used to it. The thieves on their last visit got but little for their work. This time it was different. A large amount of merchandise was taken. The robbers evidently desired to ruin such stock as was of no use to them for after they had selected what they wanted they broke bottles if intact and scattered the contents over the books and writing paper. The last act left a mark by which a clue was obtained and the police went to work.

Then came a jar.

Christmas eve, the good people of that good hamlet gathered to observe Christmas in a way pleasing to the children. A well loaded tree greeted them as they walked into the room. Hanging from its branches was a variety of presents. When all were seated and the chatter of the children was hushed the master of ceremonies approached the tree.

"Johnny Smith" he called as he unhooked a pair of shin'ing club skates from a limb. Johnny answered his name with alacrity.

Presents Unaccounted For.

"Willie Jones," he announced, as he read another tag, and another boy was tickled to death when he received a pair of skates. So it went. Several pairs of skates were given away, and numerous other articles had been handed down, when a man turned to Mrs. Smith and said:

"That was a nice pair of skates you gave Johnny."

"I did not give them to him."

"Who did?"

"Why, I do not know, I'm sure; some of his friends, I suppose."

"I didn't buy skates for Willie," said Mrs. Jones.

"Now I am sure for Matilda," chimed in Mrs. Wallce.

"Neither did I buy a hoe for Henry," quoted farmer.

"Where did these presents come from then?" they all asked at once.

It took but a moment for the small assemblage to compare notes and find that fifteen or twenty presents had reached the scene without the aid of a donor.

Among the crowd was a quiet young man with a blonde mustache.

"Let me see the skates," he said. They handed them over.

"Stolen from my store last night," he remarked loquaciously. He was one of the Murwin Brothers. Then there was a time. Not since Mrs. Daniel Stone was pulled from the cistern with the dramatic episodes that followed, had the town been so much wrought up. To rob a store to get presents to put on a Christmas tree was a new one for them.

Murwin Ran the Thief Down.

So it stood until yesterday. This morning Sheriff Bear received a letter from Mr. Murwin who is in Chicago. Mr. Murwin had suspected Irwin McLean and followed him to the World's Fair city. The letter received by the sheriff says that the Fulton merchant caused the arrest of McLean in the Union depot. He admitted the theft and said he did the job alone. He also acknowledged going through two private houses. Murwin turned him over to Inspector Stuart of the postal secret service as the Fulton store was also the United States post office. Inspector Stuart at once took him before United States Commissioner Kemp who held him in $500 and issued an order for the transfer of the case to the Federal Court at Madison.

Young McLean when brought into court acknowledged his guilt, stating that his ambition is to emulate Bill Dalton and lead a band of desperadoes. He secured no money in the letters which he rifled.

To Set Up Business in Chicago.

Irving is, perhaps, the youngest postage robber on record. He is a bright looking, nice appearing lad, who wears knickerbockers and the usual juvenile roundabout coat. When searched at the station several letters addressed to citizens of Fulton, a lot of postage stamps and other articles stolen from the post office were found in a small basket which the lad carried, and which also contained a lot of wearing apparel and the dozen dime novels. A 38-caliber revolver was also found in one of his pockets.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing dime novels and through their unholy influence became imbued with an absorbing desire to commit desperate and daring deeds. He thus conceived the idea, as he declares, of robbing the post office and, with the proceeds, coming to Chicago, where his plan was to become a full-fledged footpad.

Young McLean formerly lived in Chicago, but some years ago his parents moved to Wisconsin. The boy was bound out to D. F. Sayer who resides near Fulton. Some time ago he got a position in the post office. For quite a while he has been devoting his leisure moments to perusing

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES

Founder of the Salvation Army.

General William Booth, the famous organizer and commander in chief of the Salvation Army, is a tall and wiry man, slightly stooped, with hair once very black, but now nearly all gray, with deep, clear grayish eyes and a long and rather fleshy nose and long gray beard. He has a decided air of command and the general appearance of a natural organizer. And such he certainly is, for at the age of 48 he suddenly changed the plans and habits of a lifetime and extemporized a new and very unique organization, which in less than a score of years has spread all over the civilized world, and, whatever may be thought of its methods, is certainly one of the great potencies of the age.

GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH.

man and the general appearance of a natural organizer. And such he certainly is, for at the age of 48 he suddenly changed the plans and habits of a lifetime and extemporized a new and very unique organization, which in less than a score of years has spread all over the civilized world, and, whatever may be thought of its methods, is certainly one of the great potencies of the age.

The Atlanta Exposition of 1895.

Great preparations are in progress for the Cotton States and International exposition to be held in Atlanta from Sept. 18, 1895, to Jan. 1, 1896. The federal government has appropriated $200,000 for its exhibit, and the Government building will be one of the finest on the grounds. It will be 260 feet long and 180 feet wide and will cost $50,000. Among the other buildings will be the

THE GOVERNMENT BUILDING.

Manufactures building, 370 by 260 feet in dimensions on the ground, with a tower that will rise 100 feet into the air; Machinery hall, 100 by 500 feet and 65 feet high; Agricultural hall, 300 by 150 feet and with a 100 foot tower; Minerals and Forestry building, 80 by 320 feet; Electricity building, 91 by 250 feet, with a 100 foot tower for electrical displays; Fine Arts building, 50 by 100 feet, with two side wings of the same dimensions, and large buildings that will be devoted to woman's work, transportation and negro exhibits.

In Memory of Shelley.

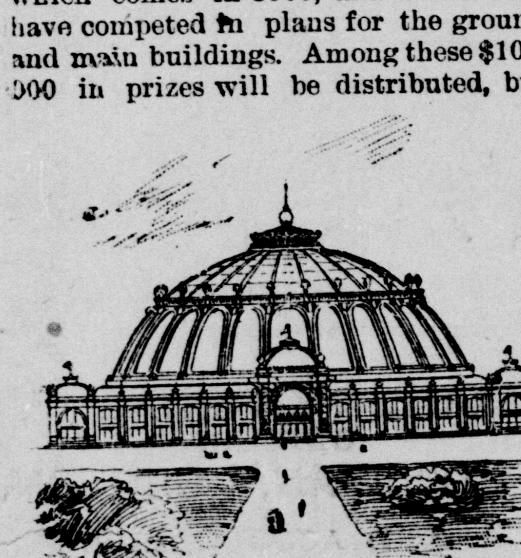

Seventy-two years after Percy Bysshe Shelley was drowned on the coast of Italy a monument to his memory has been dedicated at the spot where his corpse was cast ashore and where it was burned, all save the heart, by Lord Byron, Leigh Hunt and Edward J. Trelawney. Shelley was born Aug. 4, 1792, the son of a well to do English baronet, and his 30 years of life were almost a continuous storm. The monument is a plain shaft, 15 feet high, surmounted by a bust of Shelley, with an appropriate inscription on the pedestal.

New Publisher of Chicago Times.

Mr. Adolph Kraus has bought of Carter Harrison's daughters a controlling interest in the Chicago Times, and we are promised a new phase in the truly picturesque career of that remarkable paper. Mr. Kraus is a Democrat of local prominence and a very successful lawyer, a partner with Judge Moran, Isaac and Levy Mayer. He managed for Mr. Harrison the campaign which made the latter mayor and received from him the appointment of corporation counsel.

The Paris Exposition of 1895.

The French are already busy with plans for their next great exposition, which comes in 1900, and 500 artists have competed in plans for the ground and main buildings. Among these $10,000 in prizes will be distributed, but the commissioners will adopt whatever plan suits the area, which is but 99 acres. The plan most favored for the Palmarium, or main palace, does not strike one very favorably. All the buildings will be temporary and removed soon after the fair closes, as the grounds are almost in the center of Paris.

DESIGN FOR PALMARIUM.

He Was Superstitious.

Gus Birdwhistle had been ailing for some time, and one of his friends, Major Smile, suggested that he consult that great specialist, Dr. Soonover. The next time Gus met the major the latter asked:

"Have you been to the doctor's yet?"

"Yes, I was there."

"What diagnosis did he make of your kidney complaint?"

"I didn't let him examine me. While I was in the waiting-room I heard his wife in the parlor playing the 'Dead March in Saul' on the piano, so I just took my hat and lit out."—Texas Siftings.

A Sweet Disposition.

Mr. Smithers—I got a new typewriter operator to-day.

Mrs. Smithers (indignantly)—That's right! Get some one to supplant me in your affections!

Mr. Smithers—But it's a man!

Mrs. Smithers (in sobs)—There you go again! Trying to insinuate that I'd be jealous if you got a woman.—Chicago Tribune.

Johnny in Luck.

Little Johnny—Whoop!

Little Ethel—What's happened?

"Something jolly. The grocer has cheated mamma."

"I don't see anything jolly in that."

"You don't, eh? She sent for a lot of hard, sour cooking apples, and he sent some that isn't fit for anything but eating. Whoop!"—Good News.

THE BOSTON BABY AGAIN.

Browning Bean, Jr.—Although I have deposited the required coin in the aperture designated by the extremely lucid and pithy directions and drawn the handle to its linear extent, yet I am not recompensed by even the vestige of a sweetmeat! For once the law of compensation is lacking expression.—Judge.

Sympathy.

"I know that it is customary to regard the tramp as an idle, worthless fellow," said the thoughtful man. "But, honestly, now, don't you feel sorry for him?"

"I should say I did," replied his companion. "Why, he has to say thank you when my wife gives him some of her biscuit."—Washington Star.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY!

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system, as will be seen by the accompanying diagram. The little white lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric current is conveyed along the telegraph wires to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nerve centers for the cause of the disorders, they treat them from the part affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many noted treatises on the latter subject, long since realized the truth of the first statement, and his Restorative Nervine is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system, is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manufacturing the remedy amply prove.

Miles' Restorative Nervine is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous dyspepsia, neuralgia, sleeplessness, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per box, the size being for $5, express prepaid.

Restorative Nervine positively containing no irritants or dangerous drugs.

Sold in all drugstores.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, CIRCUIT COURT.

A. Kaufman, plaintiff, vs. Sam. Kaufman, defendant.

The State of Wisconsin to Said Defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after the service of this summons exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the court aforesaid, and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the plaintiff.

FE HERZ, JEP. KIS, FIFIELD & MATHERSON, Plaintiff's Attorneys.

P. O. Address, No. 10 W. Milwaukee St. Janesville, Rock County Wis.

Nov 3d 1894.

Notice is hereby given that a special term of the circuit court to be held in and for the county at the courthouse, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the third Tuesday, being the 15th day of January, 1895, at 9 o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered:

The application of Orville K. Bennett to admit to the probate of his will and testament of his estate, late of the city of Janesville, in said county, deceased.

Dated, Decem. 12, 1894.

By the Court,

J. W. SALE, County Judge.

Subscibe for the Gazette

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

1894

AT CANDLE LIGHTING.

I think it better to believe,
And be even as the children—they
The children of the early day—
What the kindly dreams deceive
And joyed in all the mind may weave
Or dear content—better, I say,
To let wild fancy have her way,
To try her, than to know and grieve.
A poet of old Colophon
A nation held I think was right,
No master here on whence he got it—
The stars are sufficient every dawn
And newly lighted every night,
I hope to catch the angels at it.
John Vance Cheney in Century.

PARDONED.

It was long past midnight, but the governor still sat alone in his library, hard at work on his forthcoming message.

Absolute quiet reigned in the mansion, and not a light was to be seen in any of the neighboring houses.

The governor's wife was visiting friends in the country, and the servants were all asleep in their quarters in a separate building.

The governor's pen moved rapidly over sheet after sheet of paper.

Finally the writer paused and for a moment was absorbed in profound thought.

Then he rose and slowly paced the room, occasionally stopping, apparently to listen to some real or imaginary noise in another part of the house.

He felt that his work had overtaxed him, and a nervous feeling came over him, due partly to physical exhaustion and partly to his sense of utter loneliness.

"I wish that I had told John to sit up," he said to himself, "but he is like all the other servants, too sleepy headed to be of any use."

He resumed his chair and took up his pen.

What was that in the hall? Was it a footprint?

Nearer and nearer came the stealthy, shuffling steps.

The governor could no longer doubt the testimony of his own ears, but a strange numbness seized him, and he felt unable to rise from his chair.

In another moment it was too late. The door opened softly, and a man walked in—a big, stout fellow, roughly clad, with hard, wicked face and bold, daring eyes.

The intruder quietly locked the door and took a chair on the side of the table opposite the governor.

"Keep your seat, governor," he said, with a peculiar leer. "My business won't take long. Ten minutes will be enough."

"Who are you," gasped the governor, "and how did you get in?"

"Red Rube is what they call me," was the reply, "and I walked in at the back door. I knocked your nigger down and gagged him and took the key away two hours ago, when he left the house, and then I waited until everything was quiet. Any more questions?"

The governor's face turned pale. Red Rube was one of the worst desperadoes that have been sent to the penitentiary in many years, and his midnight visit certainly meant robbery and perhaps murder.

"So you have escaped from prison," said the governor.

"Yes; I skipped out last night. Then I came to town, called on a friend and got some clothes and these."

As he said this he exhibited a large bowie knife and a pistol.

"You see, I am well fixed, and I mean business," laughed the ruffian.

"But what do you want, and why are you here?" asked the other.

"Well, governor, to make a long story short, I want you to write me a pardon and let me have enough money to pay my way out west."

It was an outrageous request. Should the ruler of a great state allow himself to be bulldozed into pardoning a murderer and supplying him with funds?

And yet what was to be done? It was impossible to raise an alarm that would be heard. If the intruder's demand was refused, the governor would be a dead man, and the convict would rob his person and make his escape.

The heroic thing would be to resist to the end, but the governor thought of his young wife, and he felt that he must save his life at any cost. It was out of the question for an unarmed man in delicate health to struggle with a giant like Red Rube, who could finish him with his knife in a second.

"I won't be hard on you," said Red Rube, "but I must have the pardon, and I must have at least $100."

"I will summon help," said the governor.

"Excuse me, but you can't," replied Red Rube. "The servants and the neighbors can't hear you, and if you raise your voice or try to ring a bell, why, I'll have to use this," and he pointed to his knife.

The helpless man on the other side of the table could not repress a slight shudder, but he made an effort to appear calm.

"You are drunk or crazy," he said sternly, "but I will give you one chance. Leave the house, and I will say nothing about your visit."

Red Rube laughed heartily.

"You don't size up the situation," he said. "I have got to make this deal or go back to prison, and I will die before I will go back. Now, if I kill you and they capture me, they will not hang me."

"I would like to know why," said the astonished governor.

"Because they have sent me to the insane ward," was the answer, "and they were getting ready to put me in the asylum. I am no longer a criminal, but a howling lunatic, don't you see? Well, if they try me for killing you, all they will do will be to send me to the insane asylum."

The governor sank back in his chair, and Rube grinned.

"You see," said Rube, "I was once acquitted of a murder in Texas on the ground of insanity and was locked up a year in an asylum, but I got out, and here I am. I can prove that insanity runs in my family. My father and two of my brothers have been crazy for years. When I am disappointed in anything, my fit comes on, and I try to kill everything in sight."

He looked like a madman, with his glaring eyes and unkempt hair.

"There is no glory in being killed by a lunatic," thought the governor.

But he tried one more appeal.

"I am sorry for you," he said, "if your mind is disordered. Here is a $10 bill. Take it and go. Follow the country roads and get out of the state and try to lead a better life."

"Thanks!" sneered the robber.

Then, firmly grasping his knife, he walked to the governor's chair.

"Time flies," he growled. "Fix that pardon, and fix it quick, and hand me that $100!"

His look was that of a wild beast, and a white froth stood on his lips.

The man in the chair looked up into the pitiless face above him. Red Rube came closer with his big knife.

"Yes or no—say it quick!" he muttered.

"All right," was the hasty reply.

"Here's the money, and now I'll fix the pardon."

He opened a drawer in his desk and took out a printed form partially filled out.

"I was going to visit the penitentiary tomorrow," he explained, "and I had several pardons filled out by my secretary, with the great seal affixed, and all that I have to do is to put in your name and sign my own."

In a moment the blanks were filled, and Red Rube had the precious document in his pocket.

"Much obliged, governor," said he, with a smile, "but you won't play any tricks, will you?"

"Not if I can help it," was the answer.

"I don't want you caught. I am the last man in the world to make this business public."

"I thought so," replied Rube. "That suits me. If you offer no reward, I can get away, and if they ever find out who I am when I get out west this pardon will protect me. Walk to the door with me, governor."

The other followed without a word to the back door of the hall.

"Goodby, old man," whispered Rube.

"No tricks, you know."

"I shall say nothing, and offer no reward," said the master of the mansion.

Red Rube disappeared in the darkness, softly chuckling as he went.

"Pardoned by the governor!" he kept repeating to himself.

The governor locked the door and returned to the library. All night long he walked the floor, and it was not until morning that he sought his bed after a short talk with the servant who had given up the key.

Fortunately for him, Red Rube was never heard of again. If he had been captured, the developments might have been very sensational.—Wallace P. Reed in Atlanta Constitution.

His Full Name.

In the Independent James Payn says that in the beginning of the present century an American sea captain, having some business in a public office in London, was very tedious in the operation of signing his name. As it happened to be Papp, this annoyed the official, who thought his valuable time was being wasted, but as it happened he was mistaken. The captain had only written his full name, "Through-much-tribulation - we - enter - into - the - kingdom-of- heaven Papp." "May I ask you," said the official, "what your mother called you when she wanted you?" "Well, sir, when I was little," was the grave reply, "they used to call me Tribby."

"So you have escaped from prison," said the governor.

"Yes; I skipped out last night. Then I came to town, called on a friend and got some clothes and these."

As he said this he exhibited a large bowie knife and a pistol.

"You see, I am well fixed, and I mean business," laughed the ruffian.

"But what do you want, and why are you here?" asked the other.

"Well, governor, to make a long story short, I want you to write me a pardon and let me have enough money to pay my way out west."

It was an outrageous request. Should the ruler of a great state allow himself to be bulldozed into pardoning a murderer and supplying him with funds?

And yet what was to be done? It was impossible to raise an alarm that would be heard. If the intruder's demand was refused, the governor would be a dead man, and the convict would rob his person and make his escape.

The heroic thing would be to resist to the end, but the governor thought of his young wife, and he felt that he must save his life at any cost. It was out of the question for an unarmed man in delicate health to struggle with a giant like Red Rube, who could finish him with his knife in a second.

"I won't be hard on you," said Red Rube, "but I must have the pardon, and I must have at least $100."

"I will summon help," said the governor.

"Excuse me, but you can't," replied Red Rube. "The servants and the neighbors can't hear you, and if you raise your voice or try to ring a bell, why, I'll have to use this," and he pointed to his knife.

The helpless man on the other side of the table could not repress a slight shudder, but he made an effort to appear calm.

"You are drunk or crazy," he said sternly, "but I will give you one chance. Leave the house, and I will say nothing about your visit."

Red Rube laughed heartily.

"You don't size up the situation," he said. "I have got to make this deal or go back to prison, and I will die before I will go back. Now, if I kill you and they capture me, they will not hang me."

"I would like to know why," said the astonished governor.

"Because they have sent me to the insane ward," was the answer, "and they were getting ready to put me in the asylum. I am no longer a criminal, but a howling lunatic, don't you see? Well, if they try me for killing you, all they will do will be to send me to the insane asylum."

The governor sank back in his chair, and Rube grinned.

"You see," said Rube, "I was once

acquitted of a murder in Texas on the ground of insanity and was locked up a year in an asylum, but I got out, and

Pure. Safe.

Prompt. Sure.

Pleasing. Speedy.

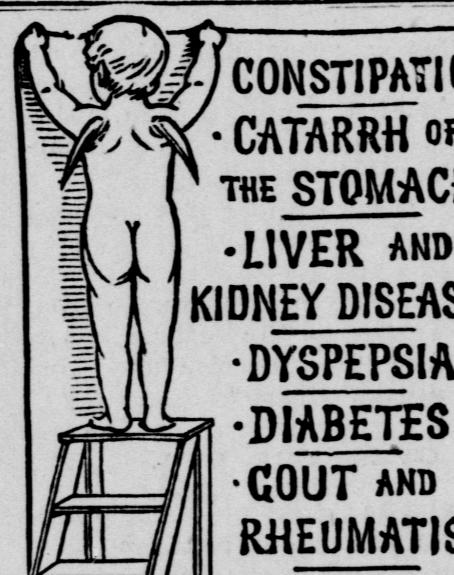

Allcock's
Porous Plaster

is all this and more, too. The best external remedy known for every form of ache or pain resulting from colds, coughs, sprains, strains, rheumatism or neuralgia.

Never be satisfied with any but ALLCOCK'S. Be not deceived by misrepresentations.

Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills
relieve indigestion, bowel, liver and kidney trouble. Absolutely pure.

These are some of the diseases that are cured by the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. It is the veritable water of the Sprudel Spring—evaporated, solidified, concentrated. In every ailment of the kind, Carlsbad has become famous the world over, and for hundreds of years, as a prompt, permanent, natural remedy.

Beware of imitations sold as "improved" or "artificial" Carlsbad Salt, which consists only of ordinary Seidlitz Powder and Glauber Salt, and are sold by unscrupulous dealers upon the reputation of the genuine.

Be sure to obtain the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt only, with the seal of the city of Carlsbad, and the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., AGTS., NEW YORK," on every bottle.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW

DR. FELIX LE BRUN'S

STEEL AND PENNYROYAL PILLS

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold by

LE BRUN'S FOR FEMALE DISEASES. This remedy being directed directly to the seat of those diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs requires no change of diet or medicines, merely a few poultices and sometimes to be taken internally. When used as a PREVENTIVE

by either sex it is impossible to contract any venereal disease, but in case of any such disease occurring, it is a safe and certain cure. Sold by all Druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Return Fine Self-Cleaning Damper

warranted to save 25 to 50 per cent of fuel and make more heat in any kind of stove. If after ten days trial it does not prove this warrant the Damper will be taken back and money refunded. Call and see them.

SPICER BROS., GENERAL MACHINISTS

16 S. River Street.

Pulleys, Shafting, Hangers, Saw Arbors

And all Machine Supplies. Engines, Boilers, Gas & Oil Lamps

Mowers Repaired

on Short Notice

Notice

Return Fine Self-Cleaning Damper

warranted to save 25 to 50 per cent of fuel and make more heat in any kind of stove. If after ten days trial it does not prove this warrant the Damper will be taken back and money refunded. Call and see them.

WADAMS CO., Mfgs. Castile Soap.

RESTORE

LOST VIGOR

When in doubt what to use for Nervous Debility, Loss of Sexual Power (in either sex), Impotency, Varicose and other weaknesses, from any cause, use

Sexine Pills. Drains checked and full vigor quickly restored. If neglected, such trouble result fatally. Mailed, postpaid, for $1.00. 6 boxes for 50c. With every $5.00 order we give a legal guarantee to cure or refund the money. Address

Result in 4 weeks.

AT CANDLE LIGHTING.

I think it better to believe, And be even as the children—they The children of the early day— Who let the kindly dreams deceive And joyed in all the mind may weave Of dear conceit—better, I say, To let wild fancy have her way, To trust her, than to know and grieve. A poet of old Colophon A son held I think was right, No matter how or whence he got it— The stars are snuffed out every dawn And newly lighted every night. I hope to catch the angels at it. —John Vance Cheney in Century.

PARDONED.

It was long past midnight, but the governor still sat alone in his library, hard at work on his forthcoming message.

Absolute quiet reigned in the mansion, and not a light was to be seen in any of the neighboring houses. The governor's wife was visiting friends in the country, and the servants were all asleep in their quarters in a separate building.

The governor's pen moved rapidly over sheet after sheet of paper.

Finally the writer paused and for a moment was absorbed in profound thought.

Then he rose and slowly paced the room, occasionally stopping, apparently to listen to some real or imaginary noise in another part of the house.

He felt that his work had overtaxed him, and a nervous feeling came over him, due partly to physical exhaustion and partly to his sense of utter loneliness.

"I wish that I had told John to sit up," he said to himself, "but he is like all the other servants, too sleepy headed to be of any use."

He resumed his chair and took up his pen.

What was that in the hall? Was it a footprint?

Nearer and nearer came the stealthy, shuffling steps.

The governor could no longer doubt the testimony of his own ears, but a strange numbness seized him, and he felt unable to rise from his chair.

In another moment it was too late. The door opened softly, and a man walked in—a big, stout fellow, roughly clad, with hard, wicked face and bold, daring eyes.

The intruder quietly locked the door and took a chair on the side of the table opposite the governor.

"Keep your seat, governor," he said, with a peculiar leer. "My business won't take long. Ten minutes will be enough."

"Who are you," gasped the governor, "and how did you get in?"

"Red Rube is what they call me," was the reply, "and I walked in at the back door. I knocked your nigger down and gagged him and took the key away two hours ago, when he left the house, and then I waited until everything was quiet. Any more questions?"

The governor's face turned pale. Red Rube was one of the worst desperados that have been sent to the penitentiary in many years, and his midnight visit certainly meant robbery and perhaps murder.

"So you have escaped from prison," said the governor.

"Yes; I skipped out last night. Then I came to town, called on a friend and got some clothes and these."

As he said this he exhibited a large bowie knife and a pistol.

"You see, I am well fixed, and I mean business," laughed the ruffian.

"But what do you want, and why are you here?" asked the other.

"Well, governor, to make a long story short, I want you to write me a pardon and let me have enough money to pay my way out west."

It was an outrageous request. Should the ruler of a great state allow himself to be bulldozed into pardoning a murderer and supplying him with funds?

And yet what was to be done? It was impossible to raise an alarm that would be heard. If the intruder's demand was refused, the governor would be a dead man, and the convict would rob his person and make his escape.

The heroic thing would be to resist to the end, but the governor thought of his young wife, and he felt that he must save his life at any cost. It was out of the question for an unarmed man in delicate health to struggle with a giant like Red Rube, who could finish him with his knife in a second.

"I won't be hard on you," said Red Rube, "but I must have the pardon, and I must have at least $100."

"I will summon help," said the governor.

"Excuse me, but you can't," replied Red Rube. "The servants and the neighbors can't hear you, and if you raise your voice or try to ring a bell, why, I'll have to use this," and he pointed to his knife.

The helpless man on the other side of the table could not repress a slight shudder, but he made an effort to appear calm.

"You are drunk or crazy," he said sternly, "but I will give you one chance. Leave the house, and I will say nothing about your visit."

Red Rube laughed heartily.

"You don't size up the situation," he said. "I have got to make this deal or go back to prison, and I will die before I will go back. Now, if I kill you and they capture me, they will not hang me."

"I would like to know why," said the astonished governor.

"Because they have sent me to the insane ward," was the answer, "and they were getting ready to put me in the asylum, I am no longer a criminal, but a howling lunatic, don't you see? Well, if they try me for killing you, all they will do will be to send me to the insane asylum."

The governor sank back in his chair, and Rube grinned.

"You see," said Rube, "I was once acquitted of a murder in Texas on the ground of insanity and was locked up a year in an asylum, but I got out, and here I am. I can prove that insanity runs in my family. My father and two of my brothers have been crazy for years. When I am disappointed in anything, my fit comes on, and I try to kill everything in sight."

He looked like a madman, with his glaring eyes and unkempt hair.

"There is no glory in being killed by a lunatic," thought the governor.

But he tried one more appeal.

"I am sorry for you," he said, "if your mind is disordered. Hero is a $10 bill. Take it and go. Follow the country roads and get out of the state and try to lead a better life."

"Thanks!" sneered the robber.

Then, firmly grasping his knife, he walked to the governor's chair.

"Time flies," he growled. "Fix that pardon, and fix it quick, and hand me that $100!"

His look was that of a wild beast, and a white froth stood on his lips.

The man in the chair looked up into the pitiless face above him. Red Rube came closer with his big knife.

"Yes or no—say it quick!" he muttered.

"All right," was the hasty reply.

"Here's the money, and now I'll fix the pardon."

He opened a drawer in his desk and took out a printed form partially filled out.

"I was going to visit the penitentiary tomorrow," he explained, "and I had several pardons filled out by my secretary, with the great seal affixed, and all that I have to do is to put in your name and sign my own."

In a moment the blanks were filled, and Red Rube had the precious document in his pocket.

"Much obliged, governor," said he, with a smile, "but you won't play any tricks, will you?"

"Not if I can help it," was the answer.

"I don't want you caught. I am the last man in the world to make this business public."

"I thought so," replied Rube. "That suits me. If you offer no reward, I can get away, and if they ever find out who I am when I get out west this pardon will protect me. Walk to the door with me, governor."

The other followed without a word to the back door of the hall.

"Goodby, old man," whispered Rube.

"No tricks, you know."

"I shall say nothing and offer no reward," said the master of the mansion.

Red Rube disappeared in the darkness, softly chuckling as he went.

"Pardoned by the governor!" he kept repeating to himself.

The governor locked the door and returned to the library. All night long he walked the floor, and it was not until morning that he sought his bed after a short talk with the servant who had given up the key.

Fortunately for him, Red Rube was never heard of again. If he had been captured, the developments might have been very sensational.—Wallace P. Read in Atlanta Constitution.

His Full Name.

In the Independent James Payn says that in the beginning of the present century an American sea captain, having some business in a public office in London, was very tedious in the operation of signing his name. As it happened to be Papp, this annoyed the official, who thought his valuable time was being wasted, but as it happened he was mistaken. The captain had only written his full name, "Through-much-tribulation-we-enter-into-the-kingdom-of-heaven Papp." "May I ask you," said the official, "what your mother called you when she wanted you?" "Well, sir, when I was little," was the grave reply, "they used to call me Tribby."

The governor's face turned pale. Red Rube was one of the worst desperados that have been sent to the penitentiary in many years, and his midnight visit certainly meant robbery and perhaps murder.

"So you have escaped from prison," said the governor.

"Yes; I skipped out last night. Then I came to town, called on a friend and got some clothes and these."

As he said this he exhibited a large bowie knife and a pistol.

"You see, I am well fixed, and I mean business," laughed the ruffian.

"But what do you want, and why are you here?" asked the other.

"Well, governor, to make a long story short, I want you to write me a pardon and let me have enough money to pay my way out west."

It was an outrageous request. Should the ruler of a great state allow himself to be bulldozed into pardoning a murderer and supplying him with funds?

And yet what was to be done? It was impossible to raise an alarm that would be heard. If the intruder's demand was refused, the governor would be a dead man, and the convict would rob his person and make his escape.

The heroic thing would be to resist to the end, but the governor thought of his young wife, and he felt that he must save his life at any cost. It was out of the question for an unarmed man in delicate health to struggle with a giant like Red Rube, who could finish him with his knife in a second.

"I won't be hard on you," said Red Rube, "but I must have the pardon, and I must have at least $100."

"I will summon help," said the governor.

"Excuse me, but you can't," replied Red Rube. "The servants and the neighbors can't hear you, and if you raise your voice or try to ring a bell, why, I'll have to use this," and he pointed to his knife.

The helpless man on the other side of the table could not repress a slight shudder, but he made an effort to appear calm.

"You are drunk or crazy," he said sternly, "but I will give you one chance. Leave the house, and I will say nothing about your visit."

Red Rube laughed heartily.

"You don't size up the situation," he said. "I have got to make this deal or go back to prison, and I will die before I will go back. Now, if I kill you and they capture me, they will not hang me."

"I would like to know why," said the astonished governor.

"Because they have sent me to the insane ward," was the answer, "and they were getting ready to put me in the asylum, I am no longer a criminal, but a howling lunatic, don't you see? Well, if they try me for killing you, all they will do will be to send me to the insane asylum."

The governor sank back in his chair, and Rube grinned.

"You see," said Rube, "I was once

acquitted of a murder in Texas on the ground of insanity and was locked up a year in an asylum, but I got out, and

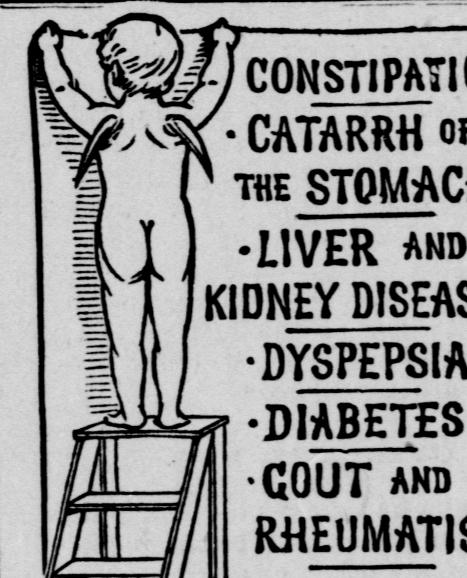

Pure. Safe.
Prompt. Sure.
Pleasing. Speedy.
Allcock's Porous Plaster

is all this and more, too. The best external remedy known for every form of ache or pain resulting from colds, coughs, sprains, strains, rheumatism or neuralgia.

Never be Satisfied with any but ALLCOCK'S. Be not deceived by misrepresentations.

Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills
relieve indigestion, bowel, liver and kidney trouble. Absolutely pure.

These are some of the diseases that are cured by the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. It is the veritable water of the Sprudel Spring—evaporated, solidified, concentrated. In every ailment of the kind, Carlsbad has become famous the world over, and for hundreds of years, as a prompt, permanent, natural remedy.

Beware of imitations sold as "improved" or "artificial" Carlsbad Salt, which consists only of ordinary Seidlitz Powder and Glauber Salt, and are sold by unscrupulous dealers upon the reputation of the genuine.

Be sure to obtain the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt only, with the seal of the city of Carlsbad, and the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., AGTS, New York," on every bottle.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW

DR. FELIX LE BRUN'S

STEEL AND PENNYROYAL PILLS

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price $1.00; sent by mail. Gemini sold only by LE BRUN'S FOR THE SIX. This remedy being injected directly to the seat of the disease, is a safe and effective remedy.

G & G AS A PREVENTIVE
by other means it is impossible to protect the body from the numerous diseases of the human frame. This is a safe and effective remedy.

CURE
Prentice & Everson, one agents.
Janeville, Wis.

SPICER BROS.,
GENERAL MACHINISTS

16 S. River Street.

Pulleys, Shafting, Hangers, Saw Arbors
And all Machine Supplies, Engines, Bicycles, Lawn
Mowers Repaired on Short Notice.

Return Fine Self-Cleaning Damper
warranted to save 25 to 50 per cent of fuel and make more heat in any kind of stove.
If after ten days trial it does not prove this warrant the Damper will be taken back and money refunded. Call and see them.

E. B. HEIMSTREET,

Janesville, Wisconsin.

We want you to make another push on our Green Olive Oil--Castile--Soap. We ship you this day 500 pounds in 1-4 pound cakes; price 10 cents each. Sell them for one week at 5c a cake but one cake to a person. We want every one to try it.

WADAMS CO., Mfgs. Castile Soap.

BROWN BROS.

AND

LINCOLN.

Bargain Sale-One Week

ALL COMPETITION SILENCED!

Quality The Highest

Prices The Lowest.

NOTICE THE VALUES.

Men's Dollar, Arctics - go now at $.75

Women's 75c Arctics - go now at .50

" Goodyear Glove Storms - go now at 50

" Bay State Storms - go now at 40

LOCAL NEWS CHOPPED FINE.

The best Japan tea a dust can be had at Dunn Bros. for 12½ cents a pound. The Hub at 108 W. Milwaukee St. will go out of business soon. Watch for their closing out sale.

THE only real soap powder can be had at Prentiss & Evanson's, the sole agents for Janesville.

We can't hypnotize you and compel you to respect our stock. Your own interest and better judgment should bring you here. Frank D. Kimball.

Now is when china ware, crockery, glassware etc., can be purchased cheap. We are going out of business. Watch for our closing out sale. The Hub.

CASH or credit, it makes no difference to us which, we want you to have the goods, and the prices are so you can get them. Frank D. Kimball.

THE regular 40 cent uncolored Japan tea, being sold at all other stores in the city or 40 cents a pound. We will sell for 35 cents a pound for 60 days. Dunn Bros.

The only genuine Monarch tea in Janesville, we have; 40 cents a pound. Others may think they have the Monarch, but not being experts they have been fooled. We are thorough scholars of the tea business. Dunn Bros.

Dry Goods Facts.

The advertisement Boro, Bailey & Co. have on the 4th page of this issue contain some facts well worthy the attention of every reader of this paper. It is a well known fact that they have almost doubled their business during the year about to close. They have done this by judicious advertising low prices, an up to date stock, and an untiring effort to please the people. In order to do this great business they have sold to a great many more people, the majority of whom have come from the surrounding country. The number of people who have been attracted here by their advertisements have not only bought dry goods but all other kinds of goods. If this result can be brought about by this firm, why can't all the merchants bring about a much greater result by their united efforts? "In Union There is Strength."

Nice Weather is Coming
Forecast: Fair and warmer.

The temperature as recorded by S. C. Burnham & Co. during the last twenty-four hours was as follows:
7 a. m.... 16 above
1 p. m.... 26 above
Max.... 26 above
Min.... 16 above
Wind.... S. west.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Made from the most highly refined and expensive ingredients, and leaves neither acid nor alkali in the food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 WALL ST., NEW YORK.

STRAY BITS OF NEWS.

Brooklyn, according to the police census, has 28,483 dogs.

Every day there is made in the United States one glass of beer for every man, woman and child in the country.

In the Kelvingrove museum, Glasgow, they have a crow's nest from Rangoon made of iron wire obtained from carbonated water bottles.

In the latest French duel Count de Dion and M. de Boisrond were stopped after an hour's fighting without results, and Paris is gossiping about their endurance.

Two men knocked down and robbed a third on a street in New York the other night and then, becoming conscience stricken, went to the nearest station house and confessed.

A burglar broke into a man's house in New York the other night, and found himself in a room full of serpents, pots of the owner of the house. The reptiles got after the burglar, who fled in affright leaving all his tools behind him.

Electric welding has been used to remedy blowholes in defective castings by first drilling out the defects and then heating the casting and introducing scraps of steel which are melted by electricity, making a perfect joint without a seam or flaw of any kind.

An explorer in Guatemala reported the discovery, in an ancient mound in that country, of many small jars, each containing the remains of a little finger from a human hand. It is supposed to have been the custom of mourners in some prehistoric race to make this sacrifice.

For combination of business and sentiment this notice in an English paper is hard to beat: "Mr. Bronson has the honor and regret to inform his patrons and friends that he has just published a new waltz, 'The Breeze of Ontario,' and lost his daughter, Susan Deborah, aged fifteen years. The waltz is on sale at all music sellers, and the funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock."

QUEER AND QUaRY.

"Bykins says his wife is one in ten." "So she is. She's the one and Bykins is the cipher."

Stella—How would you like to be one of those chickens, Garrold? Garrold—I trust, Stella, that I will never be such a tough as that.

Wife—And did Mr. Gray really say I was positively dove-like? Husband—Something of that sort. He said you were pigeon-toed, I believe.

Lawyer—Did he call you a liar in so many words? Client—Well, he called me a weather report. Lawyer—That is sufficient; you are sure to get damages.

"Why don't you feed your pig today, John?" "Because I don't want her to be too fat, and by feeding her only every second day I'm sure to get good streaked bacon."

Mr. Roby—I am afraid, love, you will find me rather exacting at times, and I am afraid, too, that I am a little inclined to find fault without cause. Mrs. Roby—Oh, don't worry, dear, I'll see that you always have cause.

"I don't believe Jack loves me as well as he ought to." Bertha—Has he been neglecting you, dear? "Oh, dear, no. He refuses to break our engagement when he knows I could marry Mr. De Million if he would."

"It is pretty well established," said the professor, "that Mars has no atmosphere." "Is it possible?" asked the spectacled young woman, "that the poets who tell us about the mortal air have been deceiving us?"

Crusty—The author of this book makes a false statement at the very start. Mrs. Crusty—Indeed?" Crusty—Yes. He says it is a story of real life but I turn to the last page and read: "And they married and lived happily all their lives."

OVER THE SEA.

Australia has more places of public worship in proportion to the population than any other country.

Paper is used in Germany in the manufacture of pianos, being employed for all of the parts which are usually made of wood.

One of the violins which belonged to the late violin virtuoso, Robert Heckmann, was recently sold at Mannheim to a virtuoso of Holland for $3,000.

At Moscow a new conservatory of music is now being erected by order of the czar. The building will cost $400,000, and will accommodate about 1,000 pupils.

Sir Edwin Landseer's house in St. John's Wood road is to be torn down to make way for a new railroad. It was built from the artist's own designs, and the walls of the studio and door panels are covered with paintings by his hand.

A remarkable feat in chess-playing was performed at Nuremberg, where the young player, Herr Walbordt, was playing a match with Dr. Tarrasch. Walbordt played fifty-one games simultaneously, winning forty-two, losing five and drawing four.

LLOYD & SON,

57 W. Milwaukee St.

Ready for the Year's Run.

Some business men will escape the income tax. Because, no one knows they are in business. The prices we make attracts wide spread attention.

Men's felt sole, Felt Shoes, proof against cold.

WARM SHOES FOR CHILDREN.

WARM SHOES FOR LADIES.

WARM SHOES FOR BOYS.

WARM SHOES FOR MEN.

Ladies Button Felt Foxed Shoes	-	-	$1.00
Ladies Lace Felt Foxed Shoes	-	-	1.00
Men's Buckle Arctics	-	-	87c
Genuine Calf-Skin Cork Sole Shoes	-	-	2.50

WARM SHOES FOR MEN.

LLOYD & SON,

57 W. W. Milwaukee.

ZIEGLER.

Some Facts For Clothing Buyers.

Fact 1—GIVEN GRATIS. Why not buy your clothing of the makers? The dealers do. You are as good as they. Why not be as smart?

Fact 2—TO THINK ABOUT. The house we are connected with is admittedly the largest manufacturers of Men's, Boys' & Children's clothing in the world, Browning, King & Co.

Fact 3—KNOWN TO ALL. Our clothing is faultless. It always gives satisfaction. In elegance, durability and value it has no competition.

We are Selling All the Above at Exactly what we Pay in Order to REDUCE OUR STOCK by February 7, the time we Invoice.

Blue and Black Chinchilla Overcoats, sizes running 36 37-38 nothing larger, we have 30 of them; were made up especially for this store by Browning, King & Co., and were to sell at $12.50. Monday and Tuesday they will be placed on sale, all must go quick, so will make them

$5

Don't fail to see these coats because they are a Splendidly made garment.

All our Plush Caps at Actual cost for these two days.

You will be surprised at our Elegant Assortment of Styles.

Watch this space for further Cost Sales during January.

Fact 4—WHY PAY THEIR PRICES? Our present stock of men's fine tailor made suits are not excelled by the best high-priced merchant tailors in quality, shape, pattern or make.

Fact 5—ABOUT FURNISHINGS. In men's furnishings we unquestionably lead. Nowhere are such elegant things shown. No where do you see such a choice selection or large a stock. We have the latest, the nicest, the best, the most.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY ONLY
MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDRENS CAPS.

Child's Tam O'Shanter made of Australian wool were sold at 75c and $1 Monday and Tuesday	50c
Child's and Boys, Stanley and yatching caps sold 50c, Mon. and Tues	38c
Boys' College caps with double band, sold at 75c, will go at	50c
Men's Yatching caps with double band the 50c kind at 38c; 75c kind, 50c; $1 kind, 75c; $1.50 kind, $1; $2 kind at $1.50.	$1

ZIEGLER.